

Ananie Michel

February 15, 1941 - December 26, 2023

Ananie Michel (née Celigny) was born on February 15, 1941 in a small Haitian Commune called Plaisance-du-Sud. She is the daughter of Guzman and Elianne Celigny. As the 2nd of 3 children, she is sister to Anastacia and Tess. Born to parents that were farmers, Ananie grew up with a vision for life in the city.

That vision brought her to Port-au-Prince, the Capital of Haiti. Her search for bright lights and big city coupled with her strong resolve led her to become a wife, a supportive mother of four, a successful restaurateur and a "Queen of EVERYTHING".

Ananie is predeceased by her grandson, Alphonso "Poppy". She is survived by her children: Immacula, Jude, Nancy and Max; her grandchildren: Nande, Judith, Brendon, Anaiah, Kyle and daughter-in-law Marie-Helen Charles.
