

Angelina Timothee

October 20, 1930 - November 11, 2022

BIOGRAPHY

Angelina Timothee was born in Corail, Haiti on October 20, 1930 to the late Louis Timothee and Rose Charles. She was the last of four children. She attended the Corail Elementary school in Haiti; upon completion of her education, she began her career as a Housekeeper for many years.

She met and married Simon Pierre where the union produced 6 lovely children namely; Harry, Martine, Michaelle now Deceased, Carlien now deceased, Quesner now deceased, and Beatrice now deceased.

Angelina lived in Port-au-Prince with her family where she was an exceptional citizen who was well loved by all. Everyone referred to as God- mother. The reason for this is that; she was always there as a pillar of support for all who knew her. She was a very loving and caring person who never hesitate to give of her last to whoever was in need.

She would cook a large pot of food and never stop dishing out until the pot was empty. On a typical day, an average of 10 outsiders would have received a meal at her house and looked forward to the next meal.

She made sure her children attended school and thaty they were always clean and tidy.

Neighbours would admire the way she cared for her children as well as and the children of others, whether it be family or just anyone within the community.

Angelina was a very calm, quiet and peaceful lady who always saught to do right by God and man. She was an advent Church goer and always got up very early to attend the catholic church in her community.

In 1970, when her husband Simon migrated to the United States to seek a better life for his family, Angelina was left alone to take care of her children. Needless to say this was never a challenge because this was something she did very well, with or without her husband.

Many years would pass, until they both re-united here in the US. They both cared for each other up to her time of departure with the Lord.

Angelina will be sadly missed by her husband, Simon, surviving children- Harry & Martine, eight Grand children & six Great grand-children, Nieces, Nephews and other relatives & friends.

Sleep in peace Angelina.
