

Anne Carine Bois

March 15, 1972 - November 2, 2021

Anne Carine Bois was born on March 15, 1968 in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti to the late Wessex Bois and Altagrace Dolcin. Anne spent her adolescent years in Haiti at the primary school Madame Dufort and attended Canado Haitian highschool before migrating to the U.S. and graduating from Edison Highschool in Miami, Florida.

Anne started a family and gave birth to her firstborn son, Juan Dolcine. Two years later, she gave birth to her daughter, Franchesca Guerrier. Then, her youngest daughter and son, Jainney Jean-Michel and Jeremiah Bois, were born. She loved her children and was dedicated to caring for their physical, emotional, and spiritual needs.

Soon, Anne started working at Spirit Airlines as a Ramp Agent before suffering from multiple strokes. After this incident, Anne stopped working and spent her time nurturing her family and caring for her friends.

Anne was a woman who took pride in her devotion to The Lord and the Word of God that carried her through the good times and the difficult times. She loved cooking her delicious specialty Haitian meals and hosting the people she cared about the most. Anne was a loving and caring woman who would always find a way to encourage those around her with the love of God and help those in need.

If she was not at church, you would find Anne lovingly caring for her youngest son and grandchildren, Terrence Aden Beranger and Taelynn Anne Beranger.

On November 2, 2021, Anne passed away at the age of 53. She will be dearly missed by her Mom, kids, siblings, grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. May her soul Rest in Peace forever. Amen.
