

Babette Brutus

October 20, 1956 - May 29, 2024

Babette Brutus was born on October 20, 1956, in Port-au-Prince, Haiti to the proud parents of Roger St. Louis and Marie Rita Theodore. She transitioned from this earth the early morning of May 29, 2024.

Babette was the middle child of five siblings: Mireille, Abner, Roger and Maxime. Babette completed her educational studies in Haiti where she met her loving husband, Lyonel, and started their family.

Babette and her growing family moved to the United States and eventually made Florida their home. She made a career of being a Home Attendant to the elderly. She took pride in caring for and loving all her clients as if they were her very own family members. She came home daily and shared stories of her bonding time and all that she learned from their different cultures and lifestyles.

Babette enjoyed cooking for her family and attending parties. She expressed her love to her family and friends through her cooking. She cooked effortlessly and never had a recipe written down. She enjoyed dancing, traveling, and being with family. Babette welcomed everyone and everyone became family.

She was preceded in death by her loving son, Pascal, and her older sister, Mireille Jules.

To cherish her precious memory, she leaves her loving husband, Lyonel; her children: Lyonel Jr. (Gabrielle) and Lynn; her grandchildren: Gina, Damon, Allannah, Gianna, Chase, Marcus, Fabrice, and Jonathan; her brothers: Abner Theard, Roger St. Louis, and Maxime St. Louis (Viviane); her countless nieces and nephews, and a host of many childhood friends.
