

Belouise Tanicien

July 31, 1935 - April 26, 2024

Belouise Tanicien born on July 31, 1935, in St. Roche Ronde, Haiti. Daughter of Deuillesse St. Louis and Soline Politesse both deceased. Belouise met her young man Farilio Tanicien and fell in love. They married in 1957. From their union six children were born Erzulia, Echel, Iphania, David, Marie, and Francis.

She immigrated to the United States in 1979 to help provide her family with better opportunities. In 1982, the couple purchased their first home together. This home came to be a pillar for our entire family. It is there that many family gatherings took place. A home where family and friends we always welcomed.

Belouise lived a full life focused on caring for her husband and nurturing her children and grandchildren. She was also there for anyone who needed her as she was affectionately called “Mum” by most who knew her.

Belouise will be dearly missed by the family. Her children Erzulia wife of Handerson, Echel and his wife Constance, David and his wife Jessica, Iphania and family, Marie and family, and Francis and his wife Dieula.

She will be greatly missed by her grandchildren Michelle, Vanessa, Kevin, Edward, Calvin, Devonte, Skyla, Nathaniel, Meghan, Chyann, Malory, Gabrielle, Tamaya, Mark, Jessica, James, Dwayne, Star, Leeland, and Ethan.

And her great-grandchild Sean.

Her beloved siblings include St. Louis Georges and family, Solitesse St. Louis (deceased) and family, Cereste St. Louis (deceased) and family, Dieuseul St. Louis and family, Tercius St. Louis and family, Tercilia August (deceased) and family and Tazi St. Louis (deceased) and family.

She will also be sincerely missed by the members of the Joseph family, Barlatier family, Calixte family and the Politesse family.

Belouise Tanicien was the wonderful and strong Matriarch of our family. She guided us with her wisdom and love that never wavered. We thank you all for being here to help us grieve during this tremendous loss.
