

Benito Brea Sr.

November 13, 1939 - March 15, 2023

Benito "Toto" Brea was born in Port-au-Prince Haiti to the late Louhis Brea and late Marie Andreлина Ferrier. Benito spent most of his youth in Haiti, where he completed his primary and secondary education.

He would later move to Miami to begin a new journey and eventually find the love of his life Paulonia. He married the late Paulonia "Popo" Boursiquot Brea in 1968.

Their union was full of love and happiness, the two were inseparable. They birthed two sons from this union, Richard Brea and Benito Brea II. They were proud parents. There was never a time you would see Benito and he didn't mention his wife and sons.

Benito worked many years for horse racetrack. Eastern airlines, and pan am. In his downtime Benito enjoyed watching wrestling and soccer.

After a well lived and fulfilled life, God called Benito home on March 15, 2023. Where he would reunite with his soul-mate and wife Paulonia.

Benito is survived by his two sons: Richard Brea & Benito Brea II; grandsons: Benito Brea III, Brandan Greene, Nito "Chico" Brea and Gianni Brea; great-grandson Yudonis Brea; brothers: Ernest Bony, Hugues Gaston, Fresner "Fish" Brea, Emil Brea (deceased), Louis "Lou Lou" Brea (deceased); sisters:

Marie Yolene Gaston, Suzette Delisfort, Micheline Philippe, Ginete Dormoy, Marie Hyppolite, Ydeline Brea Jean-Louis, Myrtha Ford (deceased), Elsie Brea Jean-Jaques (deceased), Elizabeth "Joujou" Durand, and a few more siblings. He also leaves behind an abundance of nieces, nephews, brothers, and sisters in-law.

Benito was a blessed man, and his legacy will live on through family, friends and all who loved him.

Cemetery Details

CABALLERO RIVERO SOUTHERN

15000 WEST DIXIE HIGHWAY
MIAMI, FL 33181

Previous Events

VIEWING

MAR 23. 11:00 AM (ET)

St Forts Funeral Home and Cremation
16480 NE 19th Ave
North Miami Beach, FL 33162
info@stfortsfuneralhome.com
<https://www.stfortsfuneralhome.com/>

MEMORIAL SERVICE

MAR 23. 12:00 PM (ET)

St Forts Funeral Home and Cremation
16480 NE 19th Ave
North Miami Beach, FL 33162
info@stfortsfuneralhome.com
<https://www.stfortsfuneralhome.com/>