

Bernard Bachoo

August 19, 1947 - September 8, 2023

Bernard aka Ben was born in Trinidad on August 19, 1947, to Albert McDonald Bachoo (deceased) and Marjorie Mary Bachoo (deceased).

Ben was kind hearted and had a quick response to joking situations. One of his favorite lines was “ so your being fresh, I will catch you when your stale”. They called him t-shirt on the pitch, football being a sport he totally enjoyed.

With his keen ear for music he dabbled with the steel pan and was very smooth on the dance floor. Having a life-long slim body type he always look well suited for his clothes.

Ben had a perspective that didn't always fit with other societal thinking. He walked to his own beat, drawing his own conclusions. That's a perspective we should all strive for.

Ben was predeceased by his sister Robin Bachoo.

Ben leaves to cherish his memory, his wife: Merlene Prince-Bachoo; son: Ray Da Sant; daughter: Sheneka; brothers: Errol (Chris) and Richard Roger; sisters: Monica, Bernadette aka Mickey, ShelleyAnn; brothers-in-law: Vernon Moore and Victor Peguero; special friend: Patricia Scott; grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends too numerous to mention.

Ben will be greatly missed, but we are comforted by knowing he has united with Mommy, Pappy, and Robin.

“ My uncle Ben was the life of every party. He will be greatly missed. It's very unfortunate that "our family" kept us out of the loop for his farewell ceremony because that's not how he would have wanted it. We may not be good enough for them but we were his true heart. I love you Uncle Ben. I'm sorry we couldn't make this right for you but happy you are now at peace. May you haunt those that wronged you and look over those that love you. -Shelbi

With his hair cut that stands he combined with the steel jaw and was very smooth on the skin. From having a life long clean body type he always had well defined his abdomen.

He had a very good character always he will often recall thinking he had to be one last, showing his own conclusion. That's a perspective we should all take in.
