

Castra Mandat

September 30, 1963 - January 28, 2023

Castra Mandat was born on September 30th 1963 in Baradere, Haiti. He later moved to Port-Au-Prince, Haiti for the early years of his life. From Port-Au-Prince Castra migrated to the United States in pursuit of a better life. Upon arrival, He took advantage of every opportunity presented to him and worked hard to provide for his 2 oldest sons Lossanto, Junior and family back in Haiti. As he settled in the US, he met Djenane, mother of his last 2 sons Kevin and Gregory. As a true entrepreneur and provider he made sure his family never went without. He instilled in his children the importance of education. Castra was very charismatic, he loved to joke, he was extremely fashionable and debonair. Castra lived a full life in which he touched many lives by forging great relationships with lifelong friends. On January 28, 2023, he made his transition to be with our heavenly Father. He will be remembered for his extensive cologne collection, array of dress suits and his love for playing “bolet”.

Castra is survived by his children: Lossanto, Junior, Kevin, and Gregory Mandat. Bonus children: Charlston, Dionna, and Joshua Mathurin. His grandchildren: Khiro, Leah, Xyla, Jayden, Jada, Arthur Jr.(Juju), and Avere. His brother: Deland Mandat His sister: Edite Mandat. His closest friends: Arnold, Gary, and Charles. He also leaves behind a countless number of cousins, in-laws and friends throughout the US, and Haiti.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to each and every one of you for your comforting words, prayers and continued support.
