She left Haiti in 2001 to joined her children in the United State where she lived for 22 years. She die this passed Wednesday before her beloved children by her bedside.

As a mother she was the best mom that every child could have hope for.

She gets along well with people, easy to make friends, and has compassion for others, especially to those in needs. Adult and kids call her grandma. Friends and people that knows her best called her Tita as a nickname, still some call her Madame Jacques. She was a well caring mother, a handy person; cook, wash, and nurture the youngsters. Tita was very active in her family's live not only as a provider but as a mentor.

We'll miss the times that we once had. But one day, once again we'll hold you close and laugh with you. We'll whisper words of love to you But never say consolation to others, especially to those in need. We hope of people call for guidance, strength and peace that come from their Father for "You", and others called for Madame Justice. As a mother, she was the best mom that every child could have hoped for. She was a family person, a wonderful cook, and a mother. "You" was very active in the life of her family not only as a mother but as a person.

We'll miss the time we shared together, but we are thankful for our memories. One day, we'll meet you close and laugh again. Until we welcome words of love to you that never say goodbye.

You left us wonderful memories. Your love is still our gain.
 And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.
