

Cenelus Petit-Jeune

February 20, 1947 - April 22, 2023

Cenelus Petit-Jeune was born to Genelus Petit-Jeune and Therisia Saintil in St. Louis Du Nord, Haiti on February 20, 1947. He was the fourth child out of 12 children. He completed high school while in Haiti and worked as a farmer. He moved to the Bahamas in 1963 and got a job on a Carnival cruise ship. He migrated to South Florida through the cruise ship in the 70s. Eventually, he became a successful businessman, independently driving his own taxi cab.

He married Clemencia Omiscar on February 3, 1976, creating a family of four children. He passed away at the age of 76 due to a heart attack. He leaves behind his wife, four children, and seven grandchildren: Clemencia Omiscar, wife; Danielson, son; Nathalie, daughter; Rachel, daughter; and Nadia, daughter; as well as a number of beloved family members and friends.

Cenelus will be remembered as a loving father and hardworking provider. He loved to eat, dance, laugh, watch sports (specifically basketball, soccer, football, and boxing), and spend time with his family. His memories will live in our hearts.

A father holds our hands for a little while and holds our hearts forever.
