

Danielson Petit-Jeune

April 6, 1981 - September 20, 2023

Danielson “Big D” Petit-Jeune was born to Cenelus Petit-Jeune and Clemencia Omiscar in Miami, FL on April 6, 1981. He was the first born of four children. He completed high school and worked as a bouncer, security and driver for the popular Haitian music band, Djakout Mizik. He later started his own restoration company called 1st Call Restoration, where he helped homeowners with water, mold and fire damage.

On September 20, 2023, he suddenly passed away due to cardiac arrest (from end stage kidney failure). He leaves behind his mother and three sisters: Clemencia, mother Nathalie; sisters: Rachel, and Nadia. Although he didn’t have any children, he loved and treated his seven nieces and nephews as if they were his own nieces: Raniya Leyla, Mia, Alaiyah, Amina Sky; nephews: Ryan, and Noah. “Big D” didn’t have biological brothers but GOD blessed him with brothers from other mothers: Phil, Jerry, Lens, Rodner, Kevin, Jamash, Joey, little Jerry, as well as, a number of beloved friends and family members.

“Big D” will be remembered as a loving son, big brother, Uncle D, nephew, cousin and friend. He loved to cook, eat, sing, rap, pull pranks, laugh, watch sports (specifically football, basketball and boxing) and spend time with all his friends and family. Gone too soon but his memories will live in our hearts forever.

Prayer of Comfort: _____ Pastor Lachlan Phelan

I am answering you just as you answer me
I speak to you when I speak to you
I heard my flesh and I will do it all

If you parting has left a void,
I will fill it with remembrance
A friendship shared, a laugh, or love,
All you share through love will come

No one has shared with me of sorrow,
I wish for you the consolation of tomorrow
All that I have left, I've shared with you,
Good friends, good times, my love and trust

If you have sorrow all too true,
Don't struggle it down with another's grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God raised the cross, He set me free
