

Dieufort Louis

February 8, 1939 - January 21, 2024

Dieufort Louis (AKA) “Jack” was born on February 8, 1939 in Saint-Louis-Du-Nord, Haiti in the area of Pelitier. He was the son of Mecsán Louis and Veonique Joasil. Dieufort Louis was the fourth born of ten children.

He traveled to the Bahamas at an early age in search of a better life in order to support his parents and siblings. At the age of 28, he returned to Haiti, met his beautiful fiancée Melilia Saintil who later became his wife on October 26, 1967, and together they have four children.

In July of 1976, he left the Bahamas and moved to Miami, Florida. While living here, he fathered two children with Santilia Amelus. In Miami, he worked a variety of jobs in the hotel industry, night clubs, and construction. He worked very hard to bring his three children from Haiti to Miami. He was a staple in his community, he was well loved by his neighbors. He was a good man and a caring father to his children. In his free time, he loved to watch sports, especially basketball since he was a big fan of the Miami Heat.

On Sunday, January 21, 2024, at approximately 6:45 a.m. Dieufort Louis crossed over into paradise at Jackson Memorial Hospital.
