“ Elie was a great man that always cared for his kids deeply! I remember as a child growing up in Freeport Grand Bahama in the 80s when Elie used to come down to the eight mile rock settlement with his kids to Lena, my first cousin/Sister. There was a time when I actually hid in the back of the station wagon with the help of Pedro so that i can go to their house in the City. This was of course before we had a telephone in the house, so it would take a few days before my parents knew where i was, but Elie was gracious and kind enough to let me stay with my friends for a few days.

I know Elie is up in heaven looking down at you all. Let's live in such a way that we'll be able to see him again on the other side of eternity.
