

ELISABETH THEMENE

January 31, 1946 - September 15, 2020

Elizabth was born on January 31, 1946 in Flaville, Acul-Du-Nord, Haiti to the late Nativida and Daniel Themene.

She attended the school of Nativity in Acul-Du-Nord, Haiti. From there, she was immersed in the Baptist community that would become her lifelong support.

She was the youngest of four sisters: Lucienne, Therese and Marie-Rose Themene.

Elizabth became the hardworking single mother of two children.

She was a loving, hopeful and dedicated person who would donate her time, food and money to the church, local orphanages or wherever help was needed.

She worked as an entrepreneur her whole life up until 11 years ago when she began battling multiple debilitating chronic illnesses. Amidst her suffering, her faith grew stronger as she became the avid church goer that many of us have grown to know and love.

One of her favorite hobbies is reading the bible and praying. She is known to pray for everyone whether in church, at home or using the praying line. She wouldn't allow anything to get in the way of her relationship with God or when it came to prayer which remained consistent until her last breath when she was called to be with the Lord on Tuesday, September 15, 2020.

Elizabeth is survived by her son, Henry Florvil, her daughter, Martine Fenelon, her grandchildren, Alexandre Florvil, Maya Alexis and Makayla Alexis.

Daughter-in-law: Marie Nicole Florvil.

Son-in-law: Quesly Alexis.
