

Elizabeth G Rodriguez

December 2, 1976 - July 10, 2023

Elizabeth G. Rodriguez earned her wings on Monday, July 10th, 2023 at 11:01 pm. At the age of 46, after several years of trying to overcome her declining health, Elizabeth passed peacefully with her only child and other loved ones by her side with hundreds of others praying for her.

At a young age, Elizabeth was adopted and brought to a new family with friends who loved her very much and never treated her like she was any different from them. During her adolescent years, she met many people going to school/hanging out within several boroughs of New York City, she met the father of her first and only son who lived across the street from her, and though their relationship didn't last forever like fairy-tales they always made sure to support and be a part of their son's life. Years later she decided to make a change and made the move to Miami where she gained a vastly new bonus family at Home Depot, a place where she gladly worked for over 10 years and made so many friends and memories.

Elizabeth was a happy soul and always did what she could to live a joyful life. Elizabeth leaves her memory to her son, sisters, brother, and cat Mishu, who will miss her dearly.

“She made broken look beautiful and strong look invincible. She walked with the universe on her shoulders, and made it look like a pair of wings.” -Ariana

Dancu

At a young age, Elizabeth was adopted and brought to a new family with friends who loved her very much and never treated her like she was any different from them. During her adolescent years, she met many people going to school/hanging out within several boroughs of New York City, she met the father of her life and only son who loved across the street from her, and through their relationship didn't last forever. The boys came from across the street to support and be a part of their son's life. Years later she decided to make a change and made the move to Miami where she gained a really nice bonus family at Home Depot, a place where she gladly worked for over 10 years and made so many friends and memories.

Elizabeth was a happy soul and always did what she could to live a joyful life. Elizabeth leaves her memory to her son,

A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, those things, I too will miss,
But not forgotten with tears of sorrow,
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

We will never tell, I received much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time comes all too soon,
Don't grieve your pain with undue grief,
Lift up your head and praise to them,
God wanted me close to the end of the line.
