

Eva Catherine Scully

November 23, 1922 - April 22, 2023

Eva Catherine Scully was born on November 22nd of 1922. In Vere Clarendon Jamaica to her parents Wilhelmina Peterson & Edgar Scully. Eva was one out of nine siblings. Eva attended Racecourse Primary School located in Clarendon Jamaica. She was known to be a phenomenal student.

At the age of 33, Eva brought forth life to her beautiful daughter Karol Francis in Feb 1956. Life was good for Eva and her sweet baby girl Karol, but Eva wanted the best, so she migrated to the Bahamas leaving behind Karol just to make a better life. A couple of years went on and Eva decided to Migrate to the US. Life began to get better, so her only goal was to reunite with her daughter who later had Eva's first Grandson Maurice Morris in 1982.

In 1979, Eva successfully made it to the US. She attended Faithful deliverance temple where she later met Kelly in 1984. They became inseparable and very close friends. Kelly gave birth in Sep.1989 to James and in March 1993 to Gabrielle who knew no other Grandmother but Eva. Although they weren't biologically her grandchildren it never stopped her from loving them as if they were.

In the late 80s, Eva was able to reunite with Karol and her Grandson Greg and resided in Miami, Florida.

Eva Scully was a loving, caring, strict, yet soft and compassionate individual that everyone loved. She was the Heartbeat of the family. Eva Scully was a devoted woman of God. She would always tell everyone to 'love God' and to always pray. She attended House of Prayer Worldwide 7th day Church up until God called her home to Glory.

Eva will be missed for her crazy saying such as "Carambadipus" that alone would tear the house down along with her contagious happiness and laughter.

Eva leaves behind Karol (daughter), Maurice (grandson), Roslyn, Lilly, Irene, Barrington, and Keith (siblings alive). Sylvester, Ivan, Leonard, and Marie (deceased) had opened arms for her at heaven's gates.

passed this week, as she originated in the Baltimore Savings National Bank just to make a better life. It might of been better on and she decided to migrate to the US. She began to get better, so her only good way to connect with her daughter who was her best friend (Grandmother Rosemary Moore in 1981).

In 1974, she successfully made it to the US. She attended Catholic Mass every week when she was over 60 in 1980. They became inseparable and was also known as her best friend in Aug 1980 to her end in March 1988 in Baltimore who knew an other Grandmother her life, although they were not together but grandmothers it was stopped her from being there as if they were.

In the late 80s, she was able to connect with her and her Grandmother and lived in Miami, Florida.

She truly was a loving, caring, kind, yet soft and compassionate individual that everyone loved. She was the heartbeat of the family. She truly was a blessed woman of God. She would always tell someone to love God and to love each other. She was the heart of the family. She was the heart of the family.

If you getting her left a card,
 That all of with, successful days,
 A memory shared, a laugh or two,
 Oh yes, those things, they will miss.
 Be not too hard with those of sorrow,
 Look for the smiles of tomorrow.

My life has led, I am not much,
 Good friends, good times I lived most much,
 Perhaps my time came all too brief,
 Dear neighbors, love yours with nothing good,
 Let us give honor and grace to them,
 God wanted me, you like me too.
