Reflections Of Her Life

Odette Caprice was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, on January 31, 1931. As a young woman, Odette loved to travel and her favorite trips were to Nassau, Bahamas, Key West, Florida, and Carnival Cruises. As for family, she was a woman who loved and cared for her family deeply. A loving mother and nurturing aunt and grandmother.

On August 31, 1987, she married her soulmate Edras Caprice a marriage that would be a true testament to for better, for worse, in sickness and health, to love and to cherish, till death do us part. Odette lived a long and fulfilling life. She was a lifelong member of Tabernacle of God in Christ and a devoted woman of faith who was committed to serving her community and others. Odette was a woman of strength, perseverance, and integrity.

The Lord called her home On October 5, 2024, in the peaceful care of hospice. In the Bible, it states "When the master yearns for us to be home, the call comes from him alone". Jesus carries out a double work for his sheep: Here on earth, he is with us (Matthew 28:20). There in heaven, he waits to receive us (John 14:3)

Although she's not here with us today, she will always be in our hearts as a friend, sister, aunt, mother, grandmother, and most importantly, a wife.
