Yus o yuzuen

God called you to garden
He then looked down upon the Earth and saw something new He put his arms around you and lifted you to see His garden must be beautiful
He always calls for love
He saw the road you getting rough and the hills were hard to climb So, he opened your heart to walk and whisper, "There He Thinks" He made you beautiful like you
But, you did not get there He put it all over into you that day that called you home.
