

Francoise Clement Daxon

March 19, 1941 - December 7, 2022

Francoise Clement was born in Broussard Village - Haiti, to Judeon Clement and Deliverancia Augustin on March 19th, 1941. She was the 7th of 8 children.

In her early years, many illnesses kept her from finishing her formal education.

Francoise had 5 children in Haiti before she moved to the Bahamas on September 5th, 1977.

She worked as a seamstress and eventually opened her own farmer's market on Brougham Street.

During her 29 years there, she assisted countless family members in migrating to the Bahamas and abroad. She would later have a child there.

In 2006, Francoise permanently moved to the United States. She loved taking care of her grandchildren. She battled dementia for many years. She died peacefully in her sleep on December 7th, 2022.

She had six children. One who is now deceased (Jackson).

She is survived by the following:

Children: Judeson, Louinise, St. Surin, Mercita, Nerry

Grandchildren: Kenny, Rashad, Anisha, Edward, Jakotte, Daphne,

Christopher, Denzil, Darryl, Amanda, Jeremy, Christian, Guevien, Junior,

Christalle

Son in laws: Eclezias, Joseph and Pracelin

Daughter in laws: Maryse, Dilette, Denise

Sister in laws: Mme. Louis-Jacques Clement, Mme. Augusnord Clement

Several: nephews, nieces and great grandchildren
