

Gabriel Blanc

April 2, 1964 - February 16, 2023

Biography

On April 2, 1964, Gabriel Blanc was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. He was the second child.

Growing up, Gabriel attended “Faustin Premier” for his primary education and “Lycée Pierre Eustache Daniel Figiolé” for his secondary education. He later went off to Armées d’Haïti (Armed forces of Haiti). After, he started working for the U.S. Embassy in Haiti and he worked tirelessly for his wife and three children whom he assisted in coming to the United States.

He has always been a hardworking man, a giver, and supporter throughout his life, always supporting his family. He was a beautiful person, inside and out: warm-hearted, caring, loving, soft-spoken, respectful, and generous. Gabriel accepted the Lord as his personal savior a couple months ago and ever since then, he believed his life had purpose and that God has prepared an eternal rest for him. On February 16, 2023, God called him home and he answered the call.

Gabriel is survived by his partner, Chenley Pochete, his three sons: Junior Blanc, Godson Blanc, and Jonathan Blanc; the mother of his children Dalina Sineus; his brothers: Asseny and Figaro Jerome; his sister Roseline Jerome, and daughter-in-law Solange Arne, and many other family, relatives and friends.
