Who would have thought that Genel could be extinct that young. Life is really short. Nothing is guaranteed. I personally enjoyed his playing piano. His disease didn't steal his smile. I hope to see that smile again on the day of the great eternal gathering.

He was my choir director. Not only that his band had played the most wonderful symphony in my wedding. He was always here for me.He was my mentor. I was a young 19 years old girl in the board of committee members and I would get attacked by the board members and he always put his foot down and say how are we Christians and we're treating a young youth in such a horrible condition. Then he's final word would be lets us pray. Then the committee moves on. This man was such a spiritual role model. He wouldn't do anything without praying first. God bless you Genel until the rising of the sun.

Rose, I thank God that He is your strength! Condolences to you and your family and the Jasmin family. Genel has no more pain. He is resting and waiting for his maker. Now it's your turn to cherish the memories and get ready for that day. May God never leave your side and may you hold on to Him. He has more plans for you and your children. You are in God's hands.
