

Germain Sanders

April 18, 1936 - February 14, 2023

Germaine Saunders went home to Jesus on February 14, 2023 at the age of 87.

Germaine was born on April 8, 1936 in Port au Prince, Haiti. As a child and through her adult life she put her all into being Mother, wife, and worker. She was the true definition of a phenomenal woman.

As a mother to her four children, Germaine worked endlessly to provide for her family. In search of a better life, Germaine left Haiti in 1969 and went to Nassau Bahamas where she met, fell in love and married John Saunders. Soon after getting married, she worked diligently to bring her children to the Bahamas for a better life. From the Bahamas, Germaine would travel to various places selling tourist merchandise. After the death of her husband John, Germaine and her children migrated to the United States Of America. Germaine worked at Brooklyn Terminal Market for over 20 while also specializing in retail goods and services. After retirement she moved to Miami Florida to live out the rest of her days.

In addition to being a loving and dedicated mother, Germaine also loved to travel, dance, sell her products and spend time with friends and family. Throughout her entire life she ensured she could be the best wife, mother and grandmother she could possibly be. Not only was she always present, but she also made sure she taught her children and grandchildren good ways to do life. Germaine enjoyed spending time with her family, laughing any time she could and dancing anytime she heard a beat. She held an unwavering faith in God, which she shared with those who surrounded her.

Germaine has joined her husband in Heaven. She is survived by her family members which includes children and grandchildren, her legacy will continue to live on.
