“ Jamil was my everything. When the sun didn't shine and the rain poured none of that mattered as long as he was around. The term "Missing him" is the epitome of an understatement! It's crazy The impact that he made on peoples lives like an angel in disguise.. anything he touched turned to gold! I'd give anything to have you back here with me my jellybean💜! I love you always & forever us not them💜💜💜💜

“ He was my cousins nephew and we starting building a bond 3-4 years ago. We had all the same interests, we spoke about a lot of stuff that would only bring us up in spirit. Music is my passion as well and we would talk about how we would use the music to take care of our families one day. He was supposed to come see me in Boston over the summer and record music and hang with me but covid slowed things down. He was extremely motivated and driven musically and had a lot of love for his friends and was definitely one of the most creative, unique, and talented people I've ever known. Thank you for the good talks and good music brother. I promise you I won't stop making music and all my wins will be OUR wins, love you cuzzo.

“ Coolest kid i know! He had so much passion for music and what he could do with it. He put in the work. I wrote feature articles on him 3 different times, and it never got old. RIP JDot!
