

Jean Bourdeau Chery

September 9, 1932 - May 23, 2023

Jean was born in Jeremie, Haiti on September 9, 1932, He was a man of God, he was a respectful and generous man. Jean has spent all his life helping others without expecting anything back from no-one. He always said don't ever expect that someone you have helped one day is going to be there for you in your needs, but the blessed one is going to come back to say thank you and be grateful.

He always tried to teach a lesson by saying "What you have done throughout your life on earth is the only thing you are going to carry with you when you've passed". He was a strong man, a man of Word. He was a father of seven children, but also a father, and leader to his community. He valued respect and order and shared his passions with those around him. He was a quiet man, but his silence could speak volumes.

Jean, I pray that you are sleeping peacefully, I pray that no nightmares will come your way. No one could replace you and the joy and love you brought to us every day.

Your words of wisdom were intuitive. You were a helping hand in a time of need, and you brought so much happiness to our lives.

Jean Bourdeau Chery, Thank you for everything you've done, we wish you lived longer. We already miss you in every way. Our loving memories of you will be with us every single day.
