

Jean Dufrenne Jasmin

December 15, 1950 - July 12, 2021

Born on December 15, 1950, Jean Dufresne Jasmin was a devoted husband, loving father and grandfather, an exceptional brother and son, an amazing cousin and nephew, and a friend to many. The oldest of a family of eleven children, he was the bodyguard of the youngest ones and all his life he was a protector of the destitute and neglected.

As a father, Jean adored and took great care of his children and was proud of their many accomplishments. He had always welcomed other family members like nephews and nieces into his home, to guide and help them, and he treated them like his own children.

After working for many years in Haiti as a lab technician in his own clinic, in September 2018, he decided to move to Miami where the adaptation was not easy for him. However, he decided that he had enough of his country and wanted to pave a way for his children who were already all adults. The love of a father!!! He only thought about easing the path for his children and grandchildren.
