

Jean Paul Isaac

December 22, 1981 - February 23, 2023

Jean Paul Isaac was born on December 22, 1981, in Port au Prince, Haiti to Jean M. Isaac and Marie Elvire. Jean Paul was a cherished family member, dear friend, and respected colleague. His passing has left an indelible void in the hearts of all who knew him. He lived a remarkable life, touching the hearts of everyone he met with his kindness, humor, intelligence, and unwavering passion. Jean Paul was also known as Boy, JP, Roody, Jean-Jean, and Buddy by those that were close to him.

On March 20, 1995, Jean Paul's parents relocated him and his two sisters to the United States for a better opportunity in life. He was an exemplary student throughout high school and proudly competed for straight A's. He was so successful that he graduated a year early.

On January 17, 1998 he decided to get baptized as a Jehovah's Witness. He was a deeply spiritual man who cherished his relationship with Jehovah God and was passionate about sharing his faith with others. His strong faith was evident in all aspects of his life and he was a pillar of strength and encouragement to those around him.

Jean Paul was a brilliant entrepreneur, and as an accountant a leader in his field, achieving numerous accomplishments throughout his career. His dedication and hard work earned him the respect and admiration of colleagues and clients alike, and he will always be remembered for his contribution. He even served as a life coach helping many people set goals and achieve their goals.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Jean Paul was a devoted father to his daughter Kaliyah and a loving brother to his two sisters. They shared a bond so close that it often seemed as though they were triplets. Even though he was the youngest he acted as if he was the oldest and protected them. He cherished spending time with his family and friends, creating lifelong memories through his warm, generous spirit. Jean Paul was an inspiration to all who knew him, and his legacy will continue to live on through the countless lives he touched.

In addition to his many achievements and contributions, Jean Paul was also known for his love of dancing. He had an infectious energy on the dance floor, and his skills were unmatched. Despite not having any formal training, he was a natural and quick learner, always eager to try out new moves and share his passion with others. Jean Paul's love for dancing was just one of the many ways he brought joy into the lives of those around him, and it will be fondly remembered by all who had the pleasure of witnessing it. He will be missed beyond measure.
