

Jeanne A Monteste

November 27, 1930 - May 15, 2022

Jeanne Anina Piard Monteste passed peacefully on May 15, 2022. Jeanne was born on November 27, 1930. During her days on Earth, she touched many lives and was loved deeply by family and friends.

Jeanne moved to Port-Au-Prince and shortly met Montevoix who she would marry in 1971. This is also the same year, she came to Florida. Jeanne had many jobs, but her last job was working at a hotel in North Beach, where she retired in the '80s. She started battling health issues, which led her to dialysis. But it's the memories that will live on. You could always go to Jeanne's house with an open door and a meal to come along. She always made sure you would eat and drink if you were hungry and thirsty. This was just the soul she had in seeing the happiness in everyone and anyone. We all had a different name if it was Maman Nounè, Jeannie or Soeur Jeanne. She treated everyone the same and that would be the legacy she leaves behind, because no matter what issues were going on in the family, you can always depend on Jeanne for a shoulder, ear to listen to your problem or even a room to sleep in. She is survived by her daughter Soledade Monteste Honorat and her husband Montevoix Monteste.

Jeanne was the daughter of parents Rosiare Remy and Gerveus Piard, of Camp Perrin, Haiti. Jeanne cared so much for her grandkids Steven G. Marcellus, Sasha I. St. Valiere, and Sebastian C. Honorat. Great-grandchildren Seth St.Valiere, Aiden, and Abigail Honorat. Also her Goddaughter Henrietta St-Preux.

Jeanne's siblings were her two brothers Emmanuel and Peter Piard, also her three sisters Rosina Piard, Marie Paul and Marie Therese Carris. Her In-laws Jean Paul, Wanes Metellus, Monteame Monteste, Filine Piard, Civita Bazile and Ilodia Monteste. Also her nieces and nephews Patrick Metellus, Bobby, Franz, Sonel, Hubert, Wedzer, Fanfan, Kivenson Piard, Dudley Senese, Roberto Paul, Polito Paul, Wilson Jeune, William Monteste, Yadeline Monteste Zamor, Fedline Monteste Innocent, Jean Robert, Gary Mogene, Mona Mogene, Kettly Mogene Jean Pierre, Cassandra Monteste, Wensie Desther, Margarete Piard Joizil, Bertine Gabelus, Charlyne Carris,, Adeline, Marjorie, Edline, Gerline, Gwecia, and Eddie Piard.
