

Jeanrobert Alexis Jr

May 8, 1972 - April 19, 2023

Jean Robert Alexis Jr., more commonly known as “Junior” was born on May 8, 1972, to his parents: Dulcia Menard and Jean Robert Alexis, Sr. Junior was born in the back of his father’s car en route to Kings County Hospital, in Brooklyn, New York.

Junior was a loving son, father, brother, cousin, and uncle. On this day, we choose to remember Junior for the amazing contribution that he brought to all of our lives.

Junior loved many things such as spending time at the beach, driving fast cars, dancing to music and attending gatherings; but he loved nothing more than spending time with his family and friends. Junior was one of eight, leaving behind his seven siblings: Frederick Charles, Marjorie Menard, Natacha Alexis, Sabine Charles, Carlitho Alexis, Mackenzie Laviolette, and Aris Eugene, who will forever carry him in their hearts.

Throughout his life, Junior left an imprint of every single person he encountered. He was known for his wit, charm, good looks, sense of humor, and beautiful personality. Junior had the pleasure of fathering ten beautiful children during his lifetime, leaving behind a legacy that will live on for years to come. He leaves behind: Christine, Daren, Kassandra, Jeanique, Faith, Victoria, Ethan, Hope, Chance, and Prince will all continue to carry their father in love and remembrance, supported with the utmost care of family and friends.

Junior was the life of the party, the person you went to for a good laugh, the man you knew would always put a smile on your face. He stood by his mother, Dulcia, in all her endeavors, and was always there to show up for his family. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends, and they vow to continue to pray that his soul rests in eternal peace.

We gather here today to honor Junior's life and remember the good times, beautiful memories, and support one another in this difficult time.
