

Jerry Hyppolite

August 28, 2011 - April 18, 2025

Jerry Hyppolite born on August 28, 2011, in Boyton Beach, Florida. Jerry Hyppolite grew up with an undeniable passion for life and a love for the game of basketball. Whether on the court or off, Jerry brought a vibrant energy that could not be ignored. He had a gift for lighting up every room he walked into — his laughter, his spirit, and his larger-than-life presence lifted the hearts of everyone around him.

Jerry never hesitated to make himself known, not out of pride, but from a deep, genuine love for people and connection. His joy was contagious, and his ability to bring people together was one of his greatest gifts.

Family was everything to Jerry. He shared a special bond with his parents, daphne hyppolite and rony antoine, and brought endless joy to his brothers, Jean joseph, roodly antoine, and kervens antoine. His nieces adored him and looked up to him as a source of fun, laughter, and love. He was deeply connected to his grandparents, and treasured his many aunts, uncles, and cousins who enriched his life.

His spirit, much like his love for the game, will live on in every life he touched.

Previous Events

Service

MAY 3. 10:00 AM (ET)

Church Of The Palms UCC
1960 N Swinton Ave
Delray Beach, FL 33444
<http://www.churchofthepalms.net/>

Tribute Wall

BR

“ Briana lit a candle in memory of Jerry Hyppolite ”

briana - September 01, 2025 at 01:32 PM

“ 5 files added to the album Memories Album ”

presence lifted the hearts of everyone around him.
Jerry never hesitated to make himself known, not out of pride, but from a deep, genuine love for people and connection. His joy was contagious, and his ability to bring people together was one of his greatest gifts.

Family was everything to Jerry. He shared a special bond with his parents, Daphne Hyppolite and Tony Antoine, and brought endless joy to his brothers, Jean Joseph, mostly Antoine, and Jerome Antoine. His nieces adored him and looked up to him as a source of fun, laughter, and love. He

St. Forts Funeral Home - May 02, 2025 at 10:06 AM