

Jimmie Lee Hicks

October 17, 1949 - May 12, 2024

Jimmie Lee Hicks, Jr. was born on October 17, 1949, in Miami, Florida to Jimmy and Pauline Hicks. He attended public and private schools and graduated from Miami Carol City in the class of 1967. Jimmie had a passion for music and played in the marching band.

In 1973, Jimmie enlisted in the United States Army where he served as a military police officer, during the Vietnam era. After his tour of duty, he left with an Honorable Discharge in 1975. Jimmie moved to Baltimore, Maryland after the army and he met and married Brenda Moore. Together they had two daughters: Brenda Lee, and Joy Lynn Hicks.

He became a faithful member of Morning Star Baptist Church for many years. He also studied to become a Deacon in Ministries and he was well liked and respected.

Jimmie worked until retirement for the DC government as a supervisor in the Juvenile Corrections Division. Upon returning to his roots back home, Jimmie joined True Vine Church under the leadership of Pastor Robert L. Cauley and mother Johnnie Mae Cauley. He loved going to church and taking his grandsons with him.

Jimmie was a very good man thankful person and would go to great lengths to help you. He never said a bad word about anyone and was always thankful to God for everything. He never complained.

Jimmie Lee Hicks, Jr., is preceded in death by his wife, Brenda Moore Hicks, his daughter, Brenda Lee Hicks, parents: Jimmy and Pauline, and a brother, Edward Jerome Hicks.

He leaves to cherish his memories, a daughter, Joy Lynn; grandsons: Kenneth Lee Ross and Khalon Atiba; granddaughters: Lyonna and Brianna; sisters: Evelyn and Theresa Hicks; dear friend: James Mason, and a host of church family, friends, and neighbors.
