Joseph Frantz "Fanfan" Milord

March 18, 1956 – April 23, 2021

~Passionate. Caring. Witty~

"What you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone, but what is woven into the lives of others." – History of the Peloponnesian War, Thucydides, classical author.

Joseph Frantz Milord, affectionately known as, Fanfan, was born on March 18, 1956 in Aubry, Haiti, to Raphael Pompilus Milord and Fernande Dorvilier. He was loved and cherished by all from an early age, including his siblings, Andre, Joseline, Marie Antoine, and Precice Milord, as well as his childhood and lifelong friends, Marcel Dorleans and Wilner Joseph.

On November 16, 1989, in Leogane, Haiti, Joseph married the love of his life, Elmonde P. Milord and together they raised a family. After migrating to the United States from Haiti, he spent his life in the State of Florida, residing in Winter Haven, Auburndale, and Immokalee. He was an extremely hard worker and for over twenty years, supported his family as a laundry attendant at the Marriott World Center.

On Friday April 23, 2021, Joseph Frantz Milord died in Leogane, Haiti. He was 65 years old. He is remembered for his love of music (he played music every chance he got, Saturday mornings or all day long) and for vacationing (he always loved to go back home). He was passionate, caring, and witty. Joseph is survived by his wife, Elmonde P. Milord; his sons, Miracle, Michel, and Cleffton Milord; his daughters, Erlande and Fernand Milord; five grandsons; three granddaughters; and his godson, Zayden Jean Baptiste. He was predeceased in death by Raphael P. Milord (2006), Fernande Dorvilier (2017), and Marie Carmelle Milord (2014). May they continue to rest in eternal peace. Please remember Joseph for the way he lived and continue to carry your own fond memories of him in your hearts forever. Whatever your memories are, secure them safely in your heart and retrieve them whenever you wish to feel him close. The family wishes to thank family and friends who have come and participated and also shared their kindness and support during this time of extraordinary grief.

The funeral service for Joseph Frantz Milord will be officiated by Fr. Fracilus Petit-Homme at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Winter Haven, Florida on Saturday May 22, 2021 at 10am. He will be laid to rest at the Rolling Hills Cemetery. Miracle Milord, Cleffton Milord, Michel Milord, and Marcel Dorleans will carry out the solemn honor of being his pallbearers.

“Say not in grief, he is no more, but in thankfulness that he was.” – Hebrew Proverb

Joseph’s life will continue to be celebrated in all that we do. We are so grateful to have had you in our lives.
