

Kent H. Louis

January 11, 1980 - September 28, 2023

Kent H. Louis was born on January 12, 1980, in Nassau, Bahamas to the union of Robinson and Adianise Louis. He moved to Miami, FL with his parents when he was two years old.

As a very young boy, Kent was a member and actively involved in the Notre Dame d'Haiti Catholic church located in the heart of Miami Little Haiti. As a member, he completed the First Holy Communion Program. He carried out his beliefs in serving others by always volunteering his time and helping others in various ways. He enjoyed spending quality time with his close family and friends.

Kent graduated from Miami Central High School, then later pursued his interest in dental hygiene at a local trade school. In 2004, his life changed for the better, when he became the proud father of Janise Louis. Although he faced unforeseen challenges in his adult years, Janise has always remained his pride and joy.

Kent leaves to cherish his memory: his parents: Robinson and Adianise; daughter Janise Louis; sister, Debbie Louis; brothers: Guywidson Louis, Carl Louis, Henry Louis, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
