

Ligeline Francios

March 27, 1979 - March 16, 2025

Born to Liger Francois and Marie Fenelus, Ligeline grew up in Little Haiti, where she cultivated the values of faith, family, and perseverance. She was a proud graduate of Miami Edison Senior High School, where her vibrant spirit and unwavering determination shined.

Above all, Ligeline was a devoted mother to her two beloved children, Ayaan and Nevaeh, whom she cherished beyond measure. She lived each day striving to provide them with love, stability, and a bright future. Her family was the heart of her world, and she was a pillar of strength and encouragement to those around her.

Ligeline's joyful presence was contagious—her radiant smile and heartfelt laughter could light up any room. She was a great encourager, always uplifting others with kind words and unwavering support. A true servant of God, she dedicated herself to worship and service at Bread of Life Community Church, where her faith flourished.

Her legacy of love, faith, and selflessness will forever remain in the hearts of her family and friends. Though she is no longer with us, her spirit will live on through the lives she touched.

She is survived by Nevaeh and Ayaan, her beloved children. She also leaves behind her parents, Marie Fenelus and Liger Francois.

Her surviving siblings are: Germanie Saintilme, Jackie Francois, Elvis Francois, Danne Francois, Debbie Francois, Kingsley Francois, Joel Francois, Djuan Francois, Steven Francois, Kaminsky Francois, and Marlio Francois.

Along with a many cousins, nieces and nephews.

A melody both bright and strong,
Your smile, a light so warm and true,
A gift to all who cherished you.
A mother's love, so deep, so true,
A sister's strength, a friend's bright guide,
The grace with which you lived so pure,
A soul so kind, a love so true,
Though heaven calls, we'll miss you,
Your spirit lives, and we'll pray,
In every smile, in every tear,
We hold your love—your love lives here.

A Remembrance
The family gratefully acknowledges with sincere gratitude our loving friends for their love and support during our time of grief.
