“ Lyle has been a dear friend since we met 42 years ago in Chicago before him moving to Miami. We met at the place we both worked - University of Chicago. From the first day meeting Lyle, he always had a beautiful smile and positive energy for life. He was a phenomenal photographer because anyone can portray my image in a beautiful light has superior talent! He was so excited for me to meet his daughter Cheryl as a young child during her summer visits from Miami every year. Once meeting Cheryl, I definitely could see why. Her loving, fun and kind personality was truly beyond unique. I could see it like yesterday how Lyle smiled from ear to ear when looking at Cheryl just being herself. As Cheryl was older, he would allow me to take her places for a girl's outing. Of course we would all go out together, one of my favorite times going to Lake Shore Drive for the fireworks! I had planned a trip the year before the coronavirus to visit Lyle and Cheryl and see a concert while there, but that trip was canceled due to a family emergency. I will always have my beautiful memories and photos Lyle took of me. My prayers extend to Cheryl and family. Rest in peace Lyle.

“ Lionel I know you don't mean to leave us just like that, but God need you in a Harry and you have no choice just dropped everything and go so you leave us with the broking heart so we have no choice but let you go, but only one thing we know for sure?? No more processing no more wearing no more hard time, you are in the right place in the good hands of god, but your dear love daughter, your dear love sister, your the love x wife they need your strength, in clouding me. So long ny brother you in peace.
