

Marc Subtil

February 16, 1934 - August 31, 2022

He was born on a Monday afternoon on July 16, 1934, Leogane in Haiti. He was from Charité François, mother, and Nereus Subtil, father ( both deceased. They called him Marc. He was also twinned with Maxilia(deceased).

Marc has grown up in the locality of his birth, which therefore did not have much to offer to him except to become a sailor. He was therefore a fisherman. Handsome and gentleman, he revealed, he had conquered the heart of more than ten young ladies before meeting Camelia Pierre, from the same City, who bore him 3 cute daughters: Marie Rose, Immacula and Saintamise.

Pushed by his strength and youthful spirit, also because of his friendship with Celancier Ulysse, (Roland Ulysse's father), he succeeded in seducing ERMONDE PIERRE (deceased) into celibacy. This union had given birth to two boys: Lesly and Yves.

Lively, strong and courageous, Marc always sought to create and attempt adventures, which threw him in 1978 in Guadeloupe ( French West Indies). Unfortunately what he rebait didn't work and he was returned to Haiti one year later, with always the idea of fighting and creating profitable opportunities for himself.

Finally, in 1981 his destiny led him here in the USA where he lived his last time, in other words his last days.

Marc was not, in some way an educated person. But, he had the intelligence to bend himself to a model of philosophy which made him wise and organized. To finish, Marc was without a doubt at the height of his person, and above all, he had made a success of his life.
