

Marcelle Laguerre Cesar

December 18, 1949 - September 23, 2024

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die: a time to plan, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.” - Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

We gather today not only to grieve the passing of a beloved soul, Marcelle Laguerre Cesar, but also to give thanks to God for her life. Marcelle was a person of immense faith, love, and compassion.

Marcelle Laguerre Cesar, 74, passed away Monday, September 23, 2024, at her home in North Miami, Florida. Marcelle was born December 18, 1949, to the late Marcel Laguerre and Jeanne Baguidy in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. She was the fourth child in which 5 children were born: Rose-Marie Laguerre Celestin, Maryse Laguerre Mandarin, Jocelyne Laguerre St. Rose, and Elsie Laguerre Jean Louis.

Marcelle graduated from Collège Classique Séminaire in 1967 and continued her study at the school of culinary and the school of cosmetology of Germaine Pierre Louis where she completed her certificate in both programs. She also attended the Julien Craan School of Business and completed the certificate program in business that led to her career in entrepreneurship where she traveled throughout south America in the 1970s until she migrated to the United States.

She shared her heart with those around her, always offering a helping hand, a kind word, and a prayerful presence. She was devoted to her family, her faith, and her community, and through her actions, she radiated the love of Christ.

Her journey of life reflected God's grace, as she embraced both joys and challenges with a deep trust in God's plan. She now rests in the arms of the Lord, free from all pain and suffering, as she is welcomed into eternal peace.

Marcelle is survived by her daughters, Yves Juste, Lourdes-mia Hereaux; her sons, Fabrice Laguerre, Alan Sajous. She loved her six grandchildren, Shakira, Tahj, Yssis, Logan, Nicholas, and Omario. Marcelle also leaves, godchildren, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends, though too numerous to mention but loved by the same.

Let us continue to celebrate her life, her kindness, and her unwavering faith, knowing that her spirit remains with us, guiding and protecting us until we meet again in God's kingdom.

Mom, it broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For, part of us went with you, the day God called you home. A precious one from us is gone, a voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in our hearts, which never can be filled.

“ Marcelle Laguerre embodies a mother’s love for her children and community, intricately weaving together our family’s rich heritage, strength, and spiritual foundation. As she transitions, she hopes we will carry forward the invaluable legacy of our ancestors, reflecting their resilience and unity.

One vivid memory from my journeys to our homeland is when the queen ensured my safe passage to Jacmel, welcoming me warmly as I found my way home. This experience deepened my connection to our heritage and instilled a profound sense of pride.

During my stay, the queen generously shared her wisdom, enlightening me about our spiritual foundations and how our traditions shape our identity. Her insights illuminated the journeys of our ancestors, revealing how their struggles and triumphs have molded our family and community. I came to understand that our spirituality is a living force, grounding us in love and purpose.

My Queen, as I continue this journey, I am committed to carrying our legacy into the future, ensuring that our family’s story endures. I love you, My Queen.
