to caring for others, particularly through the years of being a caregiver to parents and the ability to help others in need. She will be remembered for her helpful nature and the way she cared for her family. Known for her kindness generally, she dedicated much of her time to volunteering with her church, helping those in need with her time and skills. Whether assisting with church events, offering support to fellow members in need, or simply providing a listening ear, her heart of service was always ready to help. The ability to connect with others and her willingness to assist in any way possible, her selflessness and compassion for others will be remembered. Her dedication to her family and her community will be missed. Her passing is a loss to all who knew her, but her memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

She was also a fun and kind heart, with a special ability to make everyone feel seen and heard. Her sense of humor and a comforting presence, her kindness were felt on many occasions, and genuine care. She made a lasting impact on everyone fortunate enough to know her.

Let us honor her life. Esther Sargent, in 1981, and quickly developed a special bond with her in-laws, especially with her mother-in-law, Alma, marked by mutual respect and affection. Their relationship was genuine in love and a shared commitment to family values. Each word and gesture made her feel like a devoted daughter-in-law but also a trusted friend to her mother-in-law. This loving connection anchored her legacy of love and kindness will continue to live on in their hearts. Let us also remember her contributions to her grandchildren, Nicole and Blake, whose laughter, joy, and love have brought so much happiness to her life. Her grandchildren bring her joy and love, and she will be missed as a grandmother with all the love and care she offered her. She will be greatly missed by her numerous relatives, her extended family members, and countless friends.

I want to thank you so very much for While thinking of many things we didn't get to say know that you'll be there, and we'll be with you.
 This is a journey we all must take,
 Let the love of God guide you. Laugh at all the good times,
 But a good meal, and carry on.
 I followed the path that God has chosen for me,
 Now it's your turn, I know how much you love me,
 As much as I love you. And each time you think of me,
 Please you'll miss me too. When someone starts without me,
 Don't think we are far apart, For every time you think of me,
 I'm right here in your heart.
