

Marie Delivrancia Sonceau

May 24, 1953 - March 21, 2024

Marie Delivrancia Sonceau was born to Soirine Pierre and Paulimus Eugene at Dondon, Haiti on May 24, 1953. She was the second born of 9 children which help raise all her youngest siblings. At a young age, she left her home town Dondon to continue her study in Cap Haitian. She was a teacher for 20 years in Haiti, and do food services work for many years at the coastguard when she joined her husband in the United Stated. She was a teacher at heart, that was a gift from Jehovah. She had the ability to teach to anyone and you'll be able to understand.

She got married in 1976, and gave birth later to three children, Diada Sonceau-Pierre, Marialex Sonceau-Cantave, Mitchelo Sonceau. She a wonderful mother to her three children and many others that were not her biological kids. She took her motherhood job very serious and was very proud to be a mom.

She known by many as Dede, and used to be called Lolorte by some family members and close friends. She was a very loving person., she loves Jehovah and enjoyed going out in preaching service. She very patient, she was very forgiving, she was very generous, she caring, she was funny, she loves helping people, she did not like to see people suffering, it was very easy for anyone to spend time next her regardless of the age. She enjoyed reading the bible, walking, doing house chores, she was great cook, she used to find lots of joy in cooking, she loved feeding people. She also enjoyed sewing and altered clothing for her children, family, and friends. She was a people person and enjoyed spending time with friends and family.
