

Marie Alicia St. Fort

January 6, 1928 - February 25, 2023

Marie Alicia Alexandre St. Fort was born on January 6, 1928, in a town called Jacmel, Haiti, to parents: Aleus Alexandre and Laurelise Saintellien. She believed heavily in her faith and could be seen always praying to God with her rosary in hand. She ensured to pass those same beliefs down to her children, implanting the importance of God to them.

Marie was someone that could be viewed as a people person. She was very kindhearted and enjoyed seeing smiles on her loved ones' faces. She was a wonderful wife to Mr. Jean Joseph Fernand St. Fort and would always be seen taking wonderful care of him. Until he passed away in 2005. Marie wouldn't be seen if she wasn't with her friends and family. She was someone who was very kind but reminded people not to take her kindness for granted. Someone who valued protecting her and her children's peace. During her younger years in Haiti, she let it be known that she refused to hear any negativity about her family. Her only concern was that her children and household were well taken care of. She was a hard-working woman. Although she didn't get much education, she picked up sewing and became an amazing seamstress. She valued education and did everything in her power to ensure that all her children received a good education in order to succeed.

In 1992, she immigrated to the United States where she lived in Miami, Florida with her eldest daughters and spent the latter of her life at Biscayne Health Center. Marie went through many hardships throughout her life but managed to stay positive throughout all of it.
