

Monique Poleon

December 12, 1953 - January 21, 2024

Monique “la belle Monique” a.k.a “fanm ti Monique” Poleon, passed away on January 21, 2024, Monique was born on December 12, 1953, in Bas Limbe, Haiti. She had five siblings.

Her mother Estella Poleon moved the family to Limbe when she was a toddler. Later on her family settled in the town of Cabaret, Haiti, where she would spend her young adult life. Monique left Haiti in the late 70s and migrated to Martinique, where she would become a profitable entrepreneur. She would indulge in the world of commerce where she made a comfortable living. Monique relocated to the United States in the late 80s; where she enjoyed a wonderful life full of joy, and happiness.

Doctors said she would not survive another year, but her resiliency and strength prolonged her life for an additional five years. Monique was a strong and brave woman. She fought hard to beat the disease but eventually God summoned her to be by his side. Monique was the life of the party; her energy was radiating and addictive. Monique fed, and took care of everyone around her. She was a fun and loving soul, and will be remembered as a mother to everyone in her community.

Monique is survived by her husband Jean Joseph (Wilio); her brother Arnold Pluviose; her children: Joseph Johnny Stiven, Richard Fanchonna (Yungrich), and Cindy Poleon; grandchildren: John Ashley, Christopher, Amari, Sincere, Richard Jr, Ayanis, Ayana, Ashlaïka; nephews and nieces: Jean Robert (Jbeatz), Christina, Salomon Pluviose, just to name a few; daughters in-law: Sherlie Jonnalus Stiven, and Adeline Moise; her friends: Monique Petion, Carline, Clay, and many other love ones.
