Nancy Hernandez Cid

March 12, 1944 – February 2, 2022

~Funny. Outgoing. Young -at-heart~

Nancy Hernandez Cid, affectionately called “Tuyu” by her grandchildren, was born on March 12, 1944, in Havana, Cuba. She was the first-born child to her parents, Magaly Diaz and Ramon Hernandez. She was loved by all and treasured from an early age by family and friends, including her dear cousin, Miriam Gonzalez.

After leaving Cuba, Nancy settled in Miami, Florida with her family where she completed her education through high school. She had her own children here and eventually enjoyed the blessings of her grandchildren here in this magic city as well.

On February 2, 2022, Nancy Hernandez Cid died of natural causes at the assisted living facility in Miami where she resided. She was 77 years old. Those closest to her, carry fond memories of her fun-loving and outgoing spirit. Nancy was a true grandma who spoiled her grandchildren while pranking them whenever she could. They enjoyed her just as much and remember the way she loved to go to the beach with them, not leaving before her tan was perfect. She loved to show her grandchildren the restaurants she frequented in her youth and was never afraid to show off her dance moves.

She loved music, especially Marc Anthony and Willy Chirino. Nancy was also a great cook who took pride in teaching her granddaughter how to make traditional Cuban dishes. There was always the incredible smell of a homecooked meal in Nancy's home in the evenings. Her guilty pleasure was her wicked sweet tooth though. She loved chocolates and other sweet treats such as Cold Stone ice cream.

Nancy is survived by her daughter, Berangely Cid; her cousin, Miriam Gonzalez; her granddaughter, Sasha Portocarrero; her granddaughter, Zabria V. Suarez; her granddaughter, Jaylynn Cid; her great grandchild, Juan Pedro Medina; and her brother, Alberto Diaz. She was predeceased in death by her son, John A. Cid on January 12, 2022. May he continue to rest in peace. It is comforting to know that Nancy is with John looking down on this family. She is in Heaven right now with a fresh set of nails with her short red hair, looking beautiful as she always has, protecting us all.

A 10 am funeral mass for Nancy Hernandez Cid will be held at the St. Rose of Lima Church on February 11, 2022. She will be buried immediately after at Flagler Memorial Park.

The family of the late Nancy Hernandez Cid would like to express our sincere gratitude to each and every one for your comforting words of encouragement, support, and deeds of kindness. Most importantly, we thank you for your love and all your prayers. Special acknowledgments to the clergy and support staff of St. Rose of Lima Church as well as the staff of St. Fort's Funeral Home for their guidance through this exceedingly difficult process.
