Gratulating to Jesus
In August 2023, Hope worshiped at North Island High School, where she participated enthusiastically in the choir and musical teams. Her love of North Island High School was marked by her vibrant spirit and dedication. In late 2023, Hope transferred to Saint Faith Preparatory School, where she continued to thrive despite her short stay.

Hope was known for her vibrant personality, she had a warm, genuine smile, often leading a joyful laugh. In 2023, she made the decision to seek a new path in life and moved to Saint Faith Preparatory School, where she continued her high school education at St. Faith's High School in 2024. Hope's commitment was not only in her academic achievements but also in her character, as she was kind, helpful, and always ready to assist others. Her love for her family and friends was a source of pride and joy for all who knew her. She was a naturally caring person, always ready to help and support those in need.
