

Quinto Sessego

July 13, 1932 - August 16, 2021

Quinto Sessego, 89, passed away peacefully last August 16, 2021 in his Miami home and in the company of family. He looked very peaceful, as in a deep sleep.

Quinto was born in Beirut, Lebanon in 1932 and he spent his childhood and early adult years living in Lebanon, Siria and Italy. It was love at first sight when he met his wife on the ship emigrating to Venezuela. He proposed marriage on the “love boat” wanting the Captain to marry them right away. After six months of courtship he married his beloved wife “Mimi” with whom he had two sons in Venezuela. In 1979 Quinto immigrated to the United States with his family to provide his sons with a good education and a better future.

Quinto prospered wherever he worked due to his skills and determination. He was a great handyman, and with the help of family and friends he built his beach house and sail boat. He enjoyed dinner gatherings, birthdays and holidays. He also loved to travel with his family, and went to many countries often visiting family and friends.

Quinto was a devout husband and father. He is survived by his two sons Bruno & Raimondo Sessego, Jeannette Sessego, his granddaughters Nichole & Amanda Sessego and many other family members & friends. He will be greatly missed by all his family and friends.

“ Querido amigo Bruno,

Hoy tu amado papá ya está al lado de tu mamá. Les doy gracias por sus vidas porque gracias a ellos hoy te conozco a vos. Tu has sido un hijo ejemplar y quiero mandarte un abrazo, desde aquí. Envíe flores para que sepas que estoy presente ahí contigo. Yo se que vas a salir adelante como siempre lo has hecho y como tus padres querrían verte.
