

Severine Edouard

February 1, 1933 - June 27, 2022

Severine Edouard was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

On February 1, 1933, Sirena and Joachin Jean Francois had the honor to bring into the world our lovely Severine. She was raised with strong traditional convictions and loved her Haitian culture. She attended Le'cole Eli Dubois, for her formal education. Later on, she was trained to prepare Haitian cuisine in the French culinary style. She also was trained to become a seamstress. She absolutely loved to cook and was a master in the kitchen! With talent and great skill, she created her own fashion with her sewing. As she grew into adulthood, she had to make difficult decisions. She bravely faced the ocean, even if her life was in danger. She went to the Bahamas to seek a new life for her children that was left behind in Haiti. After moving to America, she did several different jobs. She worked in the Hospitality department in the hospitals. Then she worked as a Certified Nurse's Assistant for over 40 years. Severine was a strong, hard-working woman who loved God, her family, and all people.
