

Simone Desir

July 27, 1976 - March 12, 2025

Simone Desir was born on July 27, 1976, in Nassau, Bahamas. Simone was the cherished daughter of the late Nosilia Almazor and Simon Desir, who remains with us today. Simone's early years were filled with joy and adventure. As a child, she found happiness by the water and climbing trees, embodying a free spirit and a love for nature. At the age of four, Simone and her family moved to Miami, Florida. Throughout her childhood, Simone had a passion for soccer and carried that competitive spirit into her teenage years. She attended Miami Edison Senior High School before graduating from South Miami Senior High School. Determined to continue her education, Simone enrolled at Miami Dade College, where her path toward a life of service began. On June 6, 2008, Simone started her career with the Miami-Dade Corrections and Rehabilitation Department as a correctional officer trainee. Her dedication and strength led her to become a certified correctional officer on October 29, 2007—a role she proudly held for 17 years. Simone's commitment to her work and respect she earned from her colleagues reflected her strength, integrity, and compassion. When Simone wasn't working, she found joy in the simple pleasures of life—spending time with her family, traveling to new places, and expressing her love through cooking. Her warmth, kindness, and strength touched everyone who knew her.

Simone is survived by her loving daughters, Alexandra Jean-Lestin (24) and Jhamia Huggins (19); her father, Simon Desir; and her brother, Adley Desir.

She also leaves behind a host of cherished family members, including her cousins Ivince Almazor, Valentine Almazor, Andre Almazor, Adeline Boutin, Kailey Verna, and Kloey Geneus; her nieces Phalone Louis, Lysa Louis, and Marithza Louis; and her nephews Stevenson Louis, Ashley Louis, Wadson Louis, and Jefferson Louis. Simone's memory will also be carried on by her beloved family friends Sonia Georges, Kate Oscar, Kim Oscar, Alice Sullivan, Jack Noel and John Guarneri. Along with a host cousins, nephews, nieces and other relatives and friends who have been affected by this loss.
