“ I grew up calling you uncle Bay even though you're my cousin. I remember when your mom died and you told me it's okay to cry. You told me that death is part of living. It took me years to understand what you were saying. To live it n earth is to die so we can live again in heaven. It has been many years since I've seen or spoken to you and I deeply regret it but I always loved you. I remember you coming to one of my high school games. You challenged me to score that game and I did twice on them "Bulls". Well to aunt/Hattie your kids and other family members my condolences; I speak for my father Fred, my mother Carolyn, my brother Corwin, my sister Nekesia and myself Tarrant. Grieving is never easy and nobody can tell you how to grieve, just love and comfort each other.
