

Wilson Gustave

May 12, 1942 - April 4, 2024

Wilson Gustave was born on May 12, 1942, in Leogane, Haiti, to the late Désilia Mérant and Banmbé Gustave. His parents had 10 children, and he was the second. Out of ten children, seven have passed away, including Wilson, and three are still alive in Haiti. He had seven sisters and two brothers.

Wilson married Sainte Helene Joachin, and the pair produced one son and three daughters.

After 38 years in Haiti, he moved to the United States in 1980 in search of a better life and to support his family back home. He worked for a landscaping company for several years until retiring at the age of 52. He suffered his first stroke at the age of 65, followed by another at the age of 67. He was eventually diagnosed with prostate cancer.

Wilson cared deeply about his family. He made it his obligation to communicate his feelings whenever possible. His favorite color was black, and he adored cultural dishes. His favorite thing to do is sit outside on the porch and watch the cars go by. His favorite television shows were WWE and NBA basketball. He also enjoyed spending plenty of time with his grandchildren, he enjoyed listening to haitian music and looked forward to traveling to Haiti.
